

WESTERLY MAN THREATENED

Black Hand Letter From New York Reaches Joseph Gabriello

Speakers at Board of Trade Banquet Announced—
Major Arthur N. Nash to Be in Command at Fort Getty.

The Daughters of the American Revolution are quick in doing the appropriate thing at the appropriate time, as demonstrated at the conference in Roger Williams park when the annual meeting of the organization was extended to Mrs. William Williams Story, president general of the national society, it being her first to any conference since her election. The members were dressed as a matter of their esteem, Mrs. Story's name being Daisy.

There were over a hundred at the conference, including a delegation from the Greene Ward chapter of West- Mrs. Charles H. Bowser of Pawtucket, state regent, presided. She gave a brief address to the members and of greeting to the president general.

The officers, including Mrs. Elsieha Zerkow of Westerly, state treasurer, gave their reports, as did the representatives of the several chapters in the state. Mrs. Charlotte E. Stanton, reporting for the Greene Ward chapter. Besides the business there was singing, and an address by Mrs. Story, also an address by John P. Sanborn of Pawtucket, subject, With Perry on Lake Erie.

John J. Lunn of Westerly was re-elected secretary of the state board of agriculture at the annual meeting held at the statehouse Thursday afternoon, and a member of the executive committee. Philip A. Money of Exeter and Triam D. Babcock of Westerly were elected cattle commissioners for Washington county, and Mr. Money was appointed officer to release cattle at Brighton market consigned to Rhode Island. Dr. Thomas T. Robinson of Westerly, appointed as veterinarian by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, was approved by the state board of agriculture. A. E. Stone of Kingston was reappointed state entomologist, in charge of gypsy and brown tail moth inspection of orchards and nurseries.

Prof. Stone was authorized to prevent the shipment of lumber, posts, trees or nursery products from infected sections of the state, and if in his judgment it appears necessary, to order a quarantine of the affected localities. The board also adopted rules in compliance with law enacted at the last session of the general assembly requiring that each package or bundle of nursery stock shipped into Rhode Island must have attached a certificate from the proper official of the state from whence it comes that its contents have been inspected and that they are free from infection. Professor Stone is also authorized to revoke the license of any nurseryman whenever he deems it necessary for the prevention of the spread of the pests.

Major Arthur N. Nash of Westerly, first district, last artillery company, R. I. N. G., will be in command at Fort Getty during the annual encampment and manoeuvres of the state troops. The post will be guarded by the Third, Fourth and Seventeenth companies, located in Providence, and classed among the best companies in the service. Cyril L. D. Wells, who superintended the construction of the Westerly town hall and courthouse, is captain of the Fourth company.

Chief Engineer Samuel G. Cottrell of the Westerly fire department sees it that the equipment is complete and always in first class order, in appearance as well as usefulness. He gives personal attention to the fire alarm system, devoting much of his time to its proper care. He has been called on an inspection of the fire alarm boxes, oiling the hinges of the doors, replacing broken glasses, and putting them in excellent shape. He has repainted all the boxes a bright red, and in addition painted a red band around the posts where the boxes are located, to better attract attention in times of emergency when the service of the department is wanted. There are larger fire departments than Westerly in the state, but none has a more competent chief, assistants and fire fighters.

The arrangements for the annual banquet of the Westerly board of trade next Thursday night are completed and the reception committee members are satisfied that it will be in keeping with the past. There will be music by the orchestra, singing by a boy soprano, and after cigars are reached the will be three addresses. F. H. Jackson of Bridgeport will talk on Who's Responsible, and Dr. Willard Scott of Cambridge will speak on Pills, while Dr. William H. Holmes of Westerly will tell of Play and Playgrounds. Dr. W. H. Perry of Stonington will act as toastmaster.

Joseph Gabriello, best known to many as Joseph Graball, received an alleged black hand letter postmarked New York, June 19, and has handed it over to the police. The letter is believed to be intended as a joke, but Gabriello does not appreciate it. On one side of the single sheet of note, paper is outlined an ordinary sized

RINGWORM ON CHEEK AND BEHIND EAR

Running Into Scalp. Hot and Itching. Scales Formed. Had to Cut Hair. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured in Two Weeks.

Somerville, N. J. — "My daughter's ringworm was quite obstinate. First a red spot appeared on her cheek and another just behind the ear, running into the scalp. It was the size of a dime. They were hot and itching. Scales formed and caused her to scratch, which made it inflamed and sometimes drew the blood. I tried — salve, but it kept growing. I had to cut the hair from the ringworm that ran in the scalp. It must have been of two weeks' standing as it had grown to a good size, when I got my husband to buy a sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I washed it with hot water and Cuticura Soap then applied the Cuticura Ointment. The first application benefited her. When my sample was used I saw it was not large and angry, so I bought a box of Cuticura Ointment, and a cake of Cuticura Soap and applied them three times a day. The constant use for four or five days checked its growth and in two weeks more she was entirely cured. Cuticura Soap and Ointment also cured my son in two weeks of a case of ringworm." (Signed) Mrs. A. E. Neville, Dec. 19, 1911. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold throughout the world. A single set is often sufficient. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. skin book. Address post-card "Cuticura," Dept. T, Boston. For tender-faced men should use Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick, 25c. Sample free.

hand, in which is written in Italian the name Joseph Graball and a demand for $100, and on the wrist is written "black hand." On the reverse he is warned that if the cash is not given quick he will not live much longer. The letter bears only initial signature, and nothing is said as to where or when the money is to be delivered, though there is a crudely drawn compass, below the initials.

Gabriello is not the least disturbed, but says his wife is greatly excited. The letter is in a disguised hand and cannot be fully deciphered by highly educated Italians to whom it was referred Friday.

Local Laconics. Many families have arrived at their cottages at Watch Hill for the season. Conditioned candidates are to be barred from entry to Westerly High school.

Morning and afternoon sessions will be held at the Westerly High school in the future.

Steamer Westerly carried a full complement of passengers to the Yale-Harvard race Friday.

All cases were continued at the regular Friday session of the Third district court in Westerly.

State Attorney Hull of New London and Attorney Burrows of Groton were visitors in Westerly Friday.

The Westerly Yacht club will not celebrate the coming Fourth of July with events in the Pawcatuck river. Charles H. Cowan has leased the Casino at Atlantic Beach from the Norwich and Westerly Traction company.

The usual Friday half holiday of the Cottrell plant gave employees opportunity to take in the college aquatic event.

Many automobiles bound to the boat races stopped in Westerly long enough to be decorated with crimson or blue, and then sped on to New London.

The hospitable reception given by the trustees of the Memorial and Library association to the delegates to the annual meeting of the Rhode Island Library association was a revelation to the visitors. When these sessions are held elsewhere it is the custom for the delegates to pay for their own entertainment and lunch, not so in Westerly.

STONINGTON

Street and Sewer Improvements Continue—Outing for Insurance Men—Railroad Would Eliminate Six Crossings.

The street and sewer improvements being made in the Midway section by Warden C. B. Crandall and his assistants must tend to make that section dry even in a wet time. At the junction of Orchard, Hyde and Maple streets a large sewer has been constructed of chestnut planking. This has been connected to five drainways or catch basins, which will take off the water when the tide is at the full. These basins hold salt water, but on the fall of the tide the water is carried off.

The street has been widened at the Solder and Saunders Corners, making the corners round and giving much more room for teams. The streets have been raised. On the whole this work has been greatly needed in the locality named for some years past. The old ditch on the east of Orchard street has been improved by the placing of a large chestnut box to carry off the water and this will do away with the unsightly appearance of the uncovered ditch. None will appreciate the improvements more than the many school children who use these streets so much.

Big Elm Felled. A dead elm about 20 feet tall was cut down from the east side of Wadsworth park Wednesday by William H. Wilcox. The improvements made at the lawn on the east of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Atwood are fast nearing completion. Contractor D. G. Saunders has completed the rustic fence which has a backing of heavy galvanized wire on which the vines will run. The planting of the flower-beds was done by a Westerly company. The roof is being put on the summer house and the whole section is improved and very neat.

Fine Flower Gardens. The Hill, the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. York is fast becoming one of the show places of Stonington. The flower gardens are some of the most beautiful to be seen in this locality.

Insurance Men's Outing. The members of the Connecticut Life Underwriters' association held an outing at the Anderson Bungalow on Wamphasset point Wednesday. The members made the trip from New London to Stonington in the Aunt Edie, Capt. James Sistrare. The trip was greatly enjoyed. At the camp games were played and these were followed by a fine shore dinner. Harry H. Anderson saw that everything was done for his guests to make the day a pleasant one.

Gifts to Janitor. The graduating class of the Stonington High school made a number of gifts to Patrick Cassidy, the school janitor Wednesday. He is very popular with all the pupils.

C. B. Crandall will commence his duties as ticket agent for the N. Y., N. H. and H. R. R. at Watch Hill today.

A business meeting of Nina council, No. 43, K. of C., was held Thursday evening in their new home on Main street.

Mrs. Carl Vanderford and two sons of Fitchburg, Mass., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Bottom.

Steamer City of Boston, owned by the New England Steamship company, came from Providence Thursday and is tied up on the north end of the railroad dock.
